

SCAB 2015 at the University of St Andrews

28.03.2015

0930-1000	Registration
Talk Session 1	Chair:
1000-1015	Liam Dougherty	Experimental reduction of penis length reduces male reproductive success in a bug
1015-1030	Georgina Glaser	Decision making in female parasitoid wasps (Nasonia vitripennis)
1030-1045	David Pritchard	Landmark use by wild hummingbirds
1045-1100	Natalie Pilakouta	Burying beetles adjust their parental care behaviour based on their own and their partner's state
1100-1115	Nora Carlson	How nuthatches use and transmit information from different sources
1115-1130	TBC	TBC
1130-1200	Coffee/Tea and posters
Talk Session 2	Chair:
1200-1215	Joshua Lemin	Relationship quality and relationship asymmetry in captive chimpanzees (Pan troglodytes)
1215-1230	Alexis Breen	Physical cognition and nest building in birds
1230-1245	Samantha A. Gordine	The tale of the elephant seal and its tendency to float
1245-1300	Ginny Greenway	The repeatability of mating failure in a polyandrous insect
1300-1315	Shoko Sugawara	Morphometric analyses of hooked stick tools made by New Caledonian crows
1315-1330	Camille Troisi	Food sharing as a teaching behaviour in wild golden lion tamarins (Leontopithecus rosalia)?
1330-1430	Lunch and posters
Talk Session 3	Chair:
1430-1445	Rebecca Boulton	The costs of polyandry under local mate competition
1445-1500	Barbara Klump	'Safekeeping' of foraging tools in New Caledonian crows is context-dependent
1500-1515	Iñes Órfão	Males don't avoid competition but adjust to it
1515-1530	Deborah Bruce	Observational Learning in African Grey Parrots (Psittacus erithacus)
1530-1545	Cara Evans	When does it pay to copy the detail? Learning mechanisms and learning outcomes in primate species
1545-1600	Peter Moran	Exception to the rule: Reproductive barriers amongst two closely related Teleogryllus crickets
1600-	Wine and prizes	