

As stated below, this prestigious award from the Species Survival Committee of the International Union for the Conservation of Nature goes to the Primate Specialist Group for their outstanding contributions in delivering the Species Strategic Plan from 2021-2023

The Primate Specialist Group is a network of scientists and conservationists who stand against the tide of extinction which threatens humanity's closest kin.

Honorary Professor Liz Williamson is The Primate Specialist Group's Red List Authority Coordinator for great apes and Liz has been integral in winning this award.

