

Congratulation to all at the 6th Annual Walimi Fish Farmers Symposium in Kampala:

January 201: Ugandans building an Aquaculture Industry....

– Thanks to Victor Motari from Kenyatta Univ for the photos

Trade Fair and Exhibition Stands – this year aquaculture equipment and service suppliers and research institutions coming from Uganda, East Africa and internationally

Suzanne Njeri from Kamiti Integrated Farms Kenya answers questions after her presentation

Source of the Nile SON Fish Farm Stand - Uganda's largest Commercial Tilapia producer

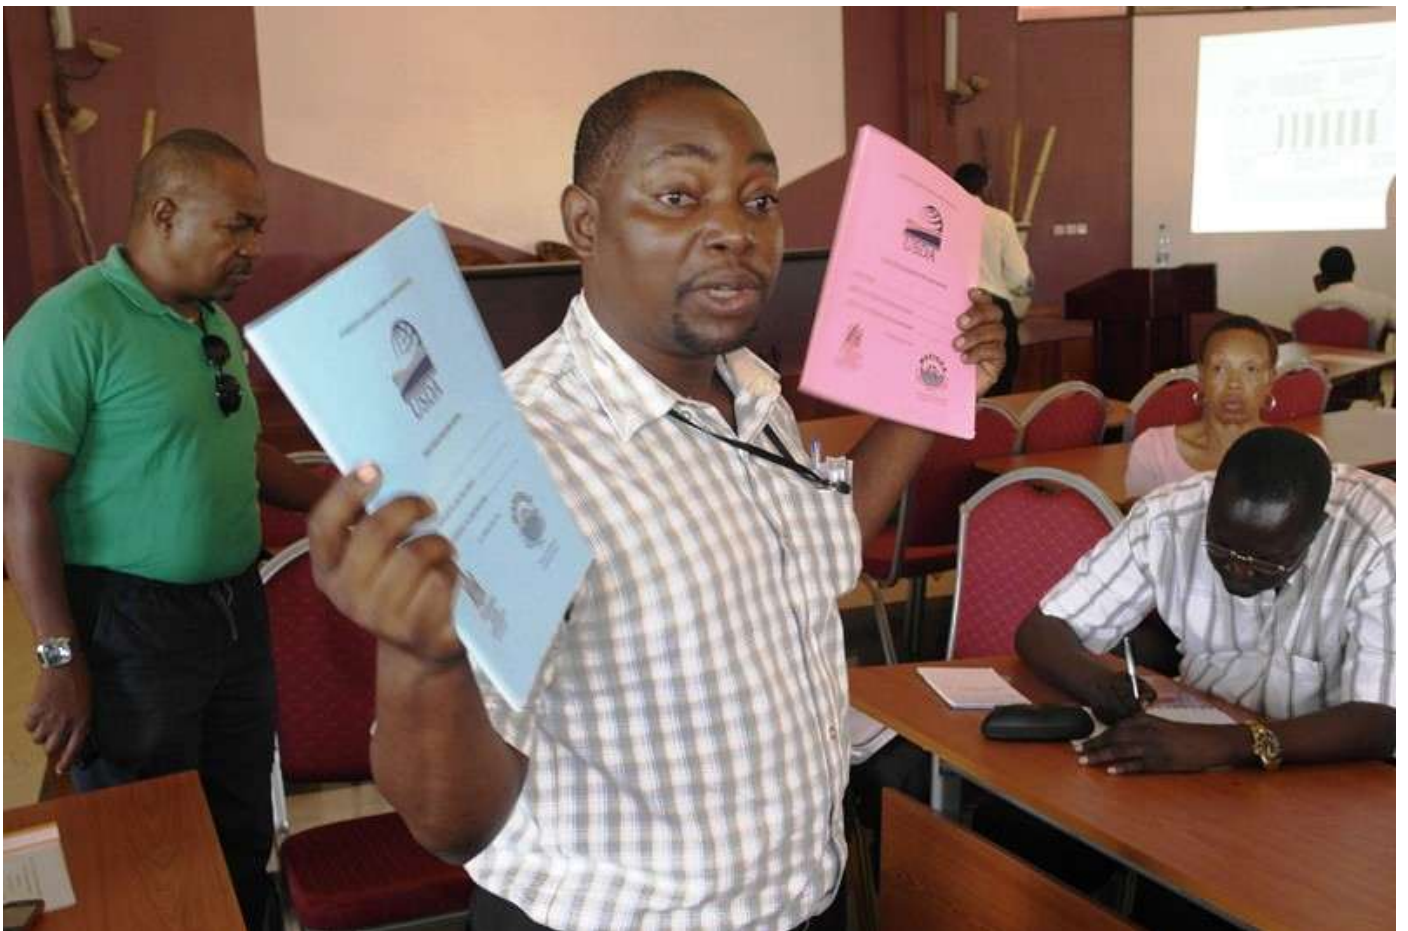

Participants receiving literature from the NAFIRRI stand

Participants enjoy comprehensive programme of presentations

Lovin Kobusingye, founder of Kati Farm Supplies, talks about the development of her Fish Sausage company and fish value chain in Uganda

John Walakiri presents and facilitates session on commercial fish farm business record keeping

Alnet South African Company exhibit their products at the Trade Fair

This year strong representation from commercial , research and govt sectors

Godfrey moderating a lively discussion session

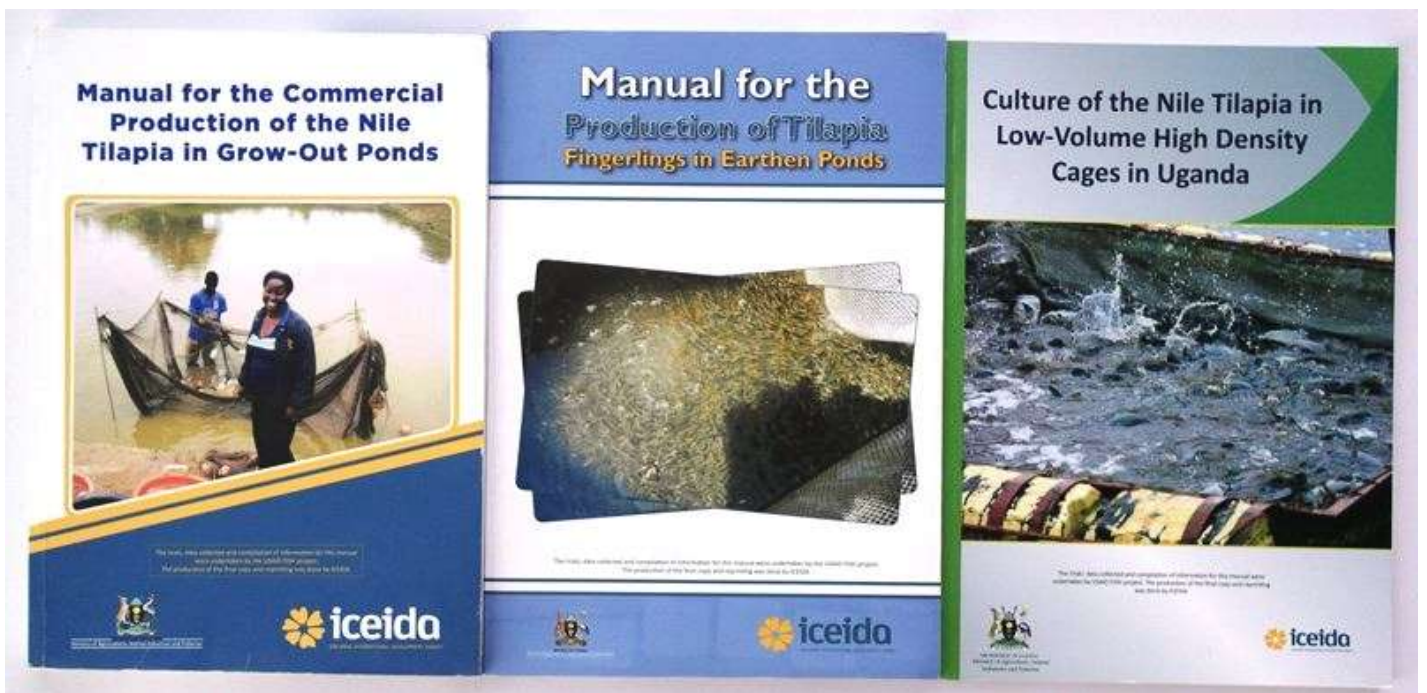

Nelly Isyagi demonstrates car battery powered RAS system

Andrew Adolo of Ssenya Fish Farm, Masaka, and David Muliika of Muduuma Integrated Fish Farm, Mpigi District Uganda receive their prizes for winning the SARNISSA Namsai FarmAqua Competition

Christine a researcher in ceramics at UIRI explains how artificial reefs can promote fish production

Selection of publications from ICEDA distributed at the symposium courtesy of Nelly Isyagi

Winner of the Door prize receives Ugandan fish sausages from the Fisheries Commissioner

Ugandan Companies developing their range of aquaculture equipment to support an industry

Kenyan Team representing growing Kenyan Aquaculture sector.....

Congratulations to all the men and women day by day working in Ugandan Aquaculture: Growing Fish, Creating jobs and incomes and providing fish and food for Ugandan markets and consumers.....

Looking forward to seeing you all January next year for Number 7 !!

Contact Ben Kiddu at Walimi for details of this years or next years symposium waficoso8@yahoo.com